ABOUT US

The Southwest Chicago Post is an independent news service for the people of Chicago's Southwest Side. We're not affiliated with any political party, organization or candidate.

We're run by and reports, photographers and videographers who live in the neighborhoods we serve.

We're not a non-profit corporation. Instead, we're a for-profit corporation that's owned and operated by a small group of neighborhood residents who are committed to bringing you the best news coverage we can.

We take strongly stated opinions from all sides of the issues we report on.

We rarely take sides in political campaigns. Our endorsements are limited to local elections for school councils, precincts, aldermen, mayor and the Chicago Park District
