Tabares cleans up

The morning after gale-force winds swept through the Southwest Side recently, 23rd Ward Ald. Silvana Tabares was spotted riding up and down the streets and alleys of the area, helping pick up downed tree branches and heave old tires and other refuse into the back of a Streets and Sanitation pickup truck.

– Supplied photo