Coat drive delivers warmth

Nearly 500 men, women and children in need will be warmer this holiday season, thanks to the annual 23rd Ward Coat Drive. Donations were collected at Archer and Nashville and then brought later to Rios de Agua Viva Church, 61st and Kedzie, which is distributing them to people in need. Pictured are 23rd Ward Ald. Silvana Tabares, Garfield Ridge Neighborhood Watch President Al Cacciottolo, Nelson Vega and Luis Ruiz, pastor of Rios de Agua. Cacciottolo founded the drive years ago under Alderman Zalewski.
