Garfield Ridge Civic League hosts tax meeting

Tabares to offer update on ward issues

By Tim Hadac

The Garfield Ridge Civic League will host speakers offering information about residential property taxes, at its meeting set for 6 p.m. Wednesday, June 16 at CrossRoads Community Church, 5433 S. Austin (enter via the east doors).

Tabares

According to GRCL President Hank Pukala, officials from the Cook County Assessor's Office and the Cook County Board of Review will discuss ways in which residential property owners can lower their taxes.

Also scheduled to appear is 23rd Ward Ald. Silvana Tabares, who will provide an update on several matters in Garfield Ridge.

Those who attend and are not fully vaccinated against COVID-19 are asked to wear facemasks.

GRCL members are reminded to make sure their annual dues ($10) are paid up.

Pastries provided by Weber's Bakery will be available, as will complimentary coffee and water.