Volunteers beautify Strohacker Park

A crew of volunteers led by 23rd Ward Ald. Silvana Tabares recently cleaned up parts of the West Elsdon area and planted trees at Strohacker Park, 55th and Kostner. The Morton Arboretum donated a tree, and Chicago Park District staff helped plant the tree. Some of the volunteers were from the non-profits Beat the Streets Chicago and Addiction Recovery Services. – Supplied photo