Cool cars on a cool day

The first-ever classic car show at St. Joseph School attracted a number of auto enthusiasts from across the Southwest Side and nearby suburbs. Paired with a chili cook-off, the event served as a fundraiser for the school, which for more than a century has provided a Catholic elementary education to boys and girls in Garfield Ridge and other city neighborhoods, as well as nearby suburban towns. – Supplied photos

